

6516206976.txt

I travel and the ability to get traffic and weather information is a plus for me. I know the station to turn to to get the information for the city I am in. It has been helpful in the past.

I would like this expanded to include regional weather. It also could be set up to notify you of warnings and watches. This spring we in the mid-west have seen a lot of bad weather. This is a service that XM could expand into and serve the customers.